

Nudity, Violence, Figure Skating It's everything you've come to expect from Northern Light Theatre...

EDMONTON- Hailed as “one of Edmonton theatre’s most consistently surprising little companies” and known for producing provocative, unique and innovative work, Northern Light Theatre is pleased to announce our 2012-2013 theatre season.

After a thrilling season last year in which Northern Light Theatre received Elizabeth Sterling Awards for Outstanding Direction (Trevor Schmidt), Outstanding Supporting Actress (Cheryl Jameson), Outstanding Supporting Actor (Jesse Gervais), and Outstanding Production for “The Fourth Graders Present An Unnamed Love-Suicide,” NLT is looking forward to featuring a new season of four original, international plays that examine the uncharted territory of male/female partnerships.

Theatre between consenting adults...

As well as announcing an exhilarating new season, Northern Light Theatre will be hooking up with some new partners-presenting as a part of the Arts at the Barns theatre series. Northern Light Theatre is also delighted to debut our Booty Call Friday Nights- a late night performance for thrill seekers and night owls at 11:30 pm on the second Friday night of the run. NLT will also be adding Tuesday Night Pay-What-You-Can performances and we're breaking up with our matinee performances (because this is the kind of stuff you only want to see after dark).

6.0- HOW HEAP AND PEBBLE TOOK ON THE WORLD AND WON

by Valentina Ceschi and Thomas Eccleshare of Dancing Brick

November 16- 24, 2012 Westbury Theatre in the TransAlta Arts Barns (10330-84 Avenue)

It's been five years since Heap Cruzjack and Pebble Adverati last laced up their skates and ice-danced competitively. But now, in spite of the extinction of ice-rinks due to global warming, the world champions are intent on a glorious comeback.

RIDE

by Jane Bodie February 1- 9, 2013 PCL Studio Theatre in the in the TransAlta Arts Barns (10330-84 Avenue)

A man and a woman wake up in bed together- naked- and neither can remember how they got there. Or who the other is. In the harsh light of the morning after, they attempt to make sense of what may or may not have happened between them and a complex snapshot of modern relationships gradually comes into focus.

DUST

by Jason Maghanoy April 5-14, 2013 PCL Studio Theatre in the in the TransAlta Arts Barns (10330-84 Avenue)

Abu Ghraib Prison. Jenny works in the office. Jonathan is a prison guard. They meet. They fall in love. And someone takes photos. Dust is a chilling, and ultimately moving examination of torture, decency and the limits of love.

AN ACCIDENT

by Lydia Stryk May 17-25 2013 PCL Studio Theatre in the in the TransAlta Arts Barns (10330-84 Avenue)

When a woman is critically injured in an accident, can the same man who almost took her life save her? There are encounters in life that take you somewhere you've never been and never meant to go. A relentless two-person drama about guilt, forgiveness and recovery.
