

Open Position: Sound Design /Technology

NTT Lecturer Design and Production – Sound emphasis. Central Washington University, Ellensburg, WA.

Responsibilities: sound design and technology courses, sound/light lab supervision, design and production courses as appropriate, and designing.

Required Qualifications: Master's degree in related field (by September 2012) and sound design experience.

Desired Qualifications: MFA in Sound Design, training and/or professional experience in one or more additional area: sound, lighting, and/or scenic design and technologies. Demonstrated experience in: teaching sound technology courses at the undergraduate level, mentoring students seeking careers in design and technology; and in working with diverse populations.

Applicant Information: This position involves quarterly contracts which are subject to funding and governed by a Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA). Online application only: <https://jobs.cwu.edu/>. [Lecturer Pool - Theatre Arts (Design and Production Areas) (2012/2013)] A digital portfolio may be required of all finalists. Screening of applications will begin immediately and continue until filled.

The Department: The Department of Theatre Arts has ten TT faculty members, five lecturers, and four staff members with approximately 140 majors seeking BA/BFA degrees and 5-8 MA-Theatre Studies candidates during the academic year. More information at www.cwu.edu/theatre/ CWU is an AA/EEO/Title IV Institution.