

It's a jolly holiday with the 34th Edmonton International Fringe Theatre Festival!

Join Fringe Theatre Adventures on a whirlwind adventure with...

SupercaliFRINGEilistic

There's something magical about it...just like that singing nanny you've heard so much about!

But what does SupercaliFRINGEilistic look like? That's where you come in!

We are looking for submissions that capture the enchantment of the Edmonton Fringe Festival. Much like Mary Poppins, the Edmonton Fringe is a vibrant, animated world that blows into Old Strathcona every summer then is gone just as quick, in a most delightful way...

Mystical chalk drawings, chimney sweeps above a London skyline, fantasy and exploring your imagination; channel your inner child and be creative!

Design illustrations will be accepted in any size or medium. You just need to get it to us! FTA will be determining our Festival design direction based on what you and select artists from the community submit.

We plan to share submissions via social media and our website (so everyone can see the cool ideas out there!) and make a decision on our design direction in late January.

Get your design in today.... deadline is January 30, 2015!
