(TRANSLATION: MIDDLE PAIN) ...CONFESSIONS OF MOTHERHOOD AND MIDDLE AGE!

Kim Zeglinski Artist's Biography

Kimmy Zee is the production company of Winnipeg-based writer-producer-performer, Kim Zeglinski. A busy teacher, wife, and mother by day, Kim gets many glimmers of inspiration while bathing by candlelight at day's end. With her husband as her scribe to quickly jot down these stream-of-consciousness ramblings, she then adds a lot of hyphens, calls a lot of creative friends, procrastinates a whole lot, and finally turns them into her quirky, honest, shoot-from-the-hip, signature-style monologues. The result is a knock-em-dead hour of poignant truth-telling, and laugh-out-loud fun.

Trivia:

Kimmy Zee is formerly known as Kimbo the (dirty-girl) Clown, who produced the 2006 production of Waiting for Aidan. The company name changed when Zeglinski realized how many people actually hate clowns. Since Kimbo the Clown's life was terminated during the live performance of Breast Friends, it seemed only suitable to retire the former production company name along with the character of Kimbo.
